Dear Allen:

It was good to see you during my brief stay in Washington. I spoke to you about the new German book on the underground resistance against Hitler in Germany and I enclose it herewith. I don't know who this Margret Boveri is but it seems a book of serious research.

Our present plans call for returning on home leave in August and in that month of September would hope to catch a glimpse of you.

All the best.

Sincerely yours,

Donald R. Heath
